More Than 300 Expected at Chest Awards Dinner Here on Thursday

More than 300 Harbor Area leaders are expected to attend the annual Community Chest awards and installation banquet, 7:30 p.m., Thursday evening, at the Plush Horse Restaurant, Jim Becker, banquet chairman, announced this week. "This annual Harbor Area affair that recognizes generous donors and volunteer leaders is becoming an annual event," he said. "EMPLOYEE groups that pladged at least one fourth of one per cent of annual payroll to the Harbor Area Chest campaign will receive the bronze plaque award and firms that gave their fair share will be presented with awards for generous corporate contributions," he explained.

Tartar Teen Talk

By CHERRIE LACY

A Candy Apple sale was sponsored by the Girls League on Tuesday and Wednesday. Candy apples could be purchased during snack and lunch. The proceeds from the sale are to be used for the annual Girls League Backwards Dance which is scheduled for April 22.

On Tuesday, the Varsity baseball team traveled to Redondo High School for an afternoon game. They were defeated 4-2. The JV's hosted Redondo at Torrance Park. Thursday the Tartar Varsity team played against their cross-town rivals, North High School, on the Saxans' diamond. They were victorious with a score of 8-6. The JV's also won 4-2.

THE ATHLETIC Awards Aud Call was held on Wednesday in the Boys Gym immediately following first period. Mike Walker, Student Body Commissioner of Athletics introduced the coaches who in turn introduced their respective teams. Coach Ogle awarded letters to the boys who lettered in Bee and Cee basketball. He was assisted by Jim De Pas, Cee team captain and Tony Augustine, Bee captain.

Following this, Coach Boerger introduced his JV basketball squad and captain Blaine McCuster. The JV's took second place in the Pioneer League. He also presented the Varsity team and their captain, Howard Taylor. At this time the Blanket Award for basketball was awarded to Bill Reinert, senior, and Bob Weister, junior.

NEXT, COACH Hoag introduced the JV wrestling team who were undefeated in their twelve straight dual matches. Last, but not least, Coach Hoag presented the Varsity wrestling team who took the championship in the Pioneer League. Adolph Duran was chosen as honorary captain. He was also awarded the Blanket Award for wrestling. The Tartar Band played two musical selections and the Assembly was dismissed by Roy Yanase, Student Body president.

THURSDAY was Business-Industry-Education Day, commonly referred to as BIE Day. During this time four business and industrial leaders visited Torrance High School to learn about the educational program that the students are receiving and by which industry and business profit. The visitors were George Hanback, salesman; Charles F. Adams, general manager; C. R. Schneider, assistant plant manager; and Harry Van Bellehem, director of recreation, Torrance recreation department.

THURSDAY ALSO launched the beginning of our clean campus campaign. Each class was assigned to a different area on campus to keep clean. The purpose of the campaign was to promote competition among classes and to bring to the attention of the students the need for keeping our campus clean. Recognition was given to the class that did the best job of keeping their area clean.

A noon sock hop was held on Friday during lunch period. Records were provided for the music. In charge of the sock hop was Bev Orend, Commissioner of Pep.

THE BOYS League sponsored a "Spring Dance" on Friday evening from 8 to 11:30 p.m. Spotlights were used among decorations of flowers and butterflies. The dress was school attire.

Friday the Tartars traveled across town to South High to meet their arch rivals and the Culver City trackmen in a triangular track meet at 3 p.m. Saturday the Torrance High trackmen participated in the Huntington Beach Invitational Track Meet.

TEN LITTLE Indians, a mystery by Agatha Christie, will be the presentation of Thespian Troop 1133 on April 29 and 30 in the Torrance High School Auditorium.

The Thespians who are cast for the play are Bill Miller, Carol Porterfield, Tim May, Pat King, Phil Cosby, Jim Pritchard, Noel Shire, Gary Blakley, Carol Mathlin, Jim White, and Lynn Keller.
